Approved For Release 2002/02 CIA-RDP79R00890A000300030023-6

FRENCH CABIFET-KEY PERSONALITIES Mendes-France, Pierre (Radical Socialist) Premier, Foreign Minister:

- 1. Born 1997. Economic financial expert. Leading exponent "realistic" approach to France's role in world affairs -- i.e.: commensurate with country's capabilities.
- 2. Escaped to Britain in World War, fought with Gaullist forces.
- 3. Prepared rehabilitation plan for post-war France; was minister of national economy from September 1944 January 1945, resigned upon failing get program accepted. Economic policy still his major interest; present program calls for increased investments, cut-back of non-productive governmental expenditures, notably military.
- 4. Maintains that France can expect to be treated on an equal footing with its allies only when it has limited its commitments to those it can be sure of fulfilling.
- 5. As long ago as October 1950, asserted Indochina too costly, proposed negotiations with He Chi Minh, even if this meant important French concessions. Claimed priority should be given to European defense.
- 6. Proposes to effect far-reaching reforms in North Africa, reversing current repressive policy.

State Dept. review completed

01490

Koenig, Pierre, General (Gaullist) Minister of Mational Defense:

1. Left active service 1951 to have freedom to express ideas, especially on defense. Elected deputy to National Assembly 1951; President, Mational Assembly Committee on National Defense from 1951 until present cabinet post, as such favored anti-EDC Moch report.

2.	Age	55,	born	in	Hormandy	of	Alı	patien	st	œk,	le	:oks
_	Germanie; fluent German.
						ne	ør	attend	led	Ecol		da da	_

25X6

Guerre (rose from ranks to 2md. Lt. in World War I); rapidly promoted from captain (1939) to full general under De Gaulle. Good administrator, but little experience in large-scale handling of combat troops.

- 3. As Governor General and Commander in Chief of French Forces, Occupied Germany (1945-1949), faithfully represented French policy opposing economic and political reunification of Germany. Personally, however, was enthusiastic proponent of France-German accord.
- 4. Feels France hasn't done enough in building up defenses (called for "46 French divisions without delay" about 1950).

La Chambre, Guy (Ind.) Minister for the Associated States:

1. Born 1898. Pre-war cabinet experience, inconspicuous postwar political role.

25X6

 Pro-EDC: Likely to be overshadowed in new post because Mendes-France is expected to take leading role on Indochina.

Guerin de Beaumont, Jean-Michel (Ind.) Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs:

- Eorn 1896. Career diplomat, intellectual, conciliator.
 Specialist on EBC, Pro-Atlantic and Pro-American.
- 2. Played major role in getting Independent support for EDC, but now advocates changes which would destroy supranational character of EDC.
- 3. Critical of: US Far East policy; pressure on France for EDC ratification.

Mitterrand, François (WDSR) Minister of Interior

- Born 1916. Dynamic, imaginative, an idea man. Replaced
 Pleven as Matienal President UDSR November 1953.
- 2. Resigned September 1953 from Laniel esbinet in protest against North African policy. Believes key to future of France lies in Euro-African build up. Advocates farreaching economic and Secial reforms in Africa. Would end Indochina war to permit concentration African.
- 3. Concerned with role of French Union in integrated European community.

Faure, Edgar (Radical Socialist) Minister of Finance:

1. Sorn 1908. Postwar political experience largely in finance, held same post under Laniel. Was Premier in

Approved For Release 2002/07/02: CIA-RDP79R00890A000300030023-6

February 1952 -- youngest such in Fourth Republic.

- 2. Emphasizes economic build-up France at all costs to fight internal Communism. Wants cut-back defense expenses to permit raising living standards; believes postponement or change in KDC necessary to ferestall Left-Right alliance in France.
- Feels prompt armistice necessary in Indochina; favors direct negotiations with Ho; holds best solution would be partition.

Fouchet, Christian (GRS) Minister of Moreccan and Tunisian Affairs

- Born 1911. Lawyer, career diplomat on special leave to serve in Assembly; diplomatic service largely in Moscow and Calcutta.
- 2. Kallied to De Gaulle in 1940; went to Mescow with De Gaulle in 1944.
- 3. Probably put in cabinet by party friends to block any far-reaching reforms for North Africa: Paris Embassy expects trouble between him and Mitterrand on African policy.

Bourges-Mausoury, Maurice, (Radical Socialist) Minister Commerce and Industry:

- Born 1914: has held several ministerial positions.

 1. /Reported in 1951 to be Gaullist, Radical Socialist in name only.
- 2. Considered pro-KTC; recent press report states he and

British and the second of the second second

Koenig will meet with Mondon-France on Saturday to plan consultation in quest of a compromise EDC solution that can command a large majority.

3. He told Ambassador Bruce on 22 June that he had given Hendes-France : letter stating he would resign from the cabinet if the government broke France's previous international commitments by presenting a modified EDC treaty for ratification.